as well as that of the muttaadies from Rs 12/- to Rs 14/- each pm

4) Subtd for orders

15/11

It is stated by the DC in his letter to the DC that the majority of the toll gate peons are S C Leo For this reason perhaps the DC, who did not recommend the pay of Rs 12/- in June 1940, now recommends sanction to the Mk Council's proposal for raising the pay of the men from 12 to Rs 14 p m.

This part of the recommendation may perhaps be accepted

As regards the enhancement of pay of 2 peons on Rs 9/- to Rs 12 each pm there seems to be no need It may however be noted that on Mldy Chek Departmental management 15/11 of Rs has been allowed, there is no complaint on the part of the peons The resolution of the Arrackere Town Mk to increase the pay of the toll gate peons from Rs 12/- to Rs 14/- each & of two peons from Rs 9/- to Rs 12/- each p m from 1 7 1941, which is supported by the DC Harassment may be sanctioned It would however be better to change the designation of these men 14/- to "muttaadies" instead of "peons"
